

1. Did anyone have a significant moment during the Sunday service that they'd like to share?
2. In Acts 1:8, Jesus commissioned the disciples to be His witnesses in Jerusalem, Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth. What did Pastor say these three regions represent in our lives today? How does the Holy Spirit empower us to be witnesses in each of these places and scenarios? Give examples from your own life if you feel comfortable.
3. Throughout the sermon, Pastor admonished us to focus not only on our self-formation but also on how our lives can bless others. He listed three ways the spirit of the antichrist tempts us to form ourselves: to be whole (and not hungry), to be unique (and "jump off the temple" instead of enter it), and to be successful (to "win in the world" instead of win the world). Which of these temptations do you experience the most? Why is it so hard to entrust our formation—our well-being, our sense of value, our success—to Christ?
